ORGANISERS

ABOUT SINGAPORE INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION CENTRE

After 18 years successful experience in administering a diverse caseload for domestic and international arbitrations the Singapore International Arbitration Centre has a proven record as a respected arbitral institution in Asia.

Based in Maxwell Chambers, Singapore's state of the art arbitration facility, we provide a neutral, efficient and reliable dispute resolution service in this important strategic hub at the centre of Asia's legal and business activity.

The SIAC is renowned for our first rate arbitration rules and detailed practice notes which promote transparency, give parties confidence and arbitrators certainty.

The SIAC has administered over 1800 cases involving parties from sixty jurisdictions and has an international panel of over 260 independent arbitrators with a spread of expertise, depth of knowledge and experience. 163 of those experts are based in the Asian region.

Under the leadership of an international board comprising leading arbitration practitioners from India, Singapore, Korea, the USA, Europe, and Australia, we are committed to excellence in serving our clients.

ABOUT PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION CENTRE

Pacific International Arbitration Centre (PIAC) was established in 2006 to meet demands of the business community for a neutral, efficient and reliable dispute resolution institution in Vietnam.

PIAC is formed as a not-for-profit organization, and works towards promotion of ADR as a means of dispute resolution and strives to bring together the professionals such as judges, lawyers, arbitrators, mediators, professors and scholars for professional and practical settlement of commercial disputes.

PIAC offers ADR services, including arbitration and mediation. We are committed to impartiality and transparency in all process of arbitration and mediation.
